If school runs like it did during Covid...

- * regular pencils, like Ticonderoga, or really any brand
- * an eraser
- * any kind of black fine pointed pen, like a marker or ball point
- * Sharpie-type marker, black,
- * pencil sharpener,
- * oil pastels (Sakura or Cray-pas) - any size is fine
- * colored pencil pack (they do not have to be Prismacolor). We found this pack of 24 at Dick Blick for $3.64: <https://www.dickblick.com/items/22429-0249/>
- * Prang watercolor set (8) basic oval, any watercolor set is fine, but this brand is very high quality for a very low price. We found this one for $2.81: <https://www.dickblick.com/items/00350-1009/>
- * a couple of nice brushes are optional, but gather all of the ones you have in the house so you know your brush choices
- * masking tape
- * glue stick (I like the UHU 1.41 oz., but any are fine)
- * ruler
- * scissors
- * drawing pad about 8.5" x 11" (size to fit in backpack to be taken back and forth to school). It should have at least 50 sheets in it. It can be anywhere from 8 x 10" or 9 x 12" -- somewhere in that size range.
- * The drawing pad could instead be a ream of unlined, no holes, white paper about 8.5" x 11" (preferably a paper that can accept most materials)
- * a sturdy piece of cardboard
- * a method for transporting the materials to and from school - an expensive portfolio is not necessary
- * markers (optional but helpful)
