

In your view

By Anne Marie Leone

How would you describe Ardsley's character to someone thinking of moving here?

Laurie Donepp, Ardsley

Neighborhood-like. Friendly. Always someone looking after your children. Great schools.

Jean Japinga, Ardsley

It's small. Familiar faces wherever you go. For those with kids in school, you will know everyone, every teacher, everything that goes on. The schools are a unifying factor.

T.J. Knoesel, Ardsley

It's quaint. It's a nice little village. I grew up here. I moved away. I came back to be closer to friends that I grew up with and some of my family who's local. The schools, for my children — that was one of the main parts for moving back as well.

Alden Cass, Ardsley

Ardsley is a quaint village that I feel has a lot of great character in that you have every different type of culinary options as well as great schools and you're close to the culture of the city, yet you're away from it so you can have the best of both worlds.