

Mask-Wearing Protocol Remains In Place

The Ardsley School District is aware of a recent court ruling. The New York State Department of Education (NYSED) is subsequently issuing a stay. As per the NYSED, we will continue our current mask-wearing protocol. Furthermore, we will continue to maintain all current safety measures in place until further notice. You will be informed of any change in protocols and we will keep you updated.